DIRECTOR'S NOTE

On behalf of the creative team, crew, and cast, it is my great honor to welcome you to The Youngstown Playhouse's very own Wonderland. It has been so rewarding to work with such a dedicated, kind, and talented group of young individuals who are never short on ideas. The Youngstown Playhouse was so fortunate to receive a grant this year for the Youth Program. In light of this, Alice in Wonderland now has American Sign Language Interpreters for every showing. In preparation for our interpreters, the cast has been learning American Sign Language on top of their other acting lessons. This cast is deserving of every laugh, round of applause, or gasp that you give. Every cast member has embraced their character(s) in ways that we hope you can embrace becoming an audience member and a Wonderland citizen too.

Originally published in 1865, the story of Alice and her friends has entertained readers and audiences of all ages for generations. Alice's Adventures in Wonderland is known to be one of the most famous children's books in England. As a twist on a "coming of age" story, the audience will chuckle and maybe even shed a tear as Alice discovers who she truly is. It is curious how such a classic tale can come in so many shapes and sizes! This version of Alice in Wonderland, adapted by John Pizzarello and starring the talent of Youngstown's youth, is sure to keep you on the edge of your seat. This tale reminds us that even when things get a little wacky, each and every person (or egg, or frog, or rabbit, or flower, or...) is full of wonder.

We invite you to immerse yourself in the crazy, wild, and entertaining world that we call Wonderland. Make sure to stop in the lobby for concessions- what is a tea party without a proper beverage? Please ensure that you keep all belongings away from the isles- the Queen has been known to step on toes. And, from the bottom of our hearts to the tips of our flower petals, we thank you all for falling down this rabbit hole with us.

Eden Lesnansky

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

EDEN LESNANSKY (Director) is so happy to welcome you all to Wonderland! She is incredibly honored to be directing for the first time with such amazing people. Eden has been an active member of The Youngstown Playhouse Youth Program through learning, performing, and teaching. Some performance and backstage credits through the Playhouse and other local theaters include Excalibur High, Robinhood, Treasure Island, Peter Pan, Journey to Ohio, Misery, and more. A few teaching credits include "Tiny Talents" and "Signing and Song" through The Youngstown Playhouse and Stambaugh Auditorium. Eden has continued her love for magic and theatre through performing for Heroes and Tiaras. An Honors student at Youngstown State University, Eden works as a consultant at the Writing Center. Through this job, she performed Love is an Open Door using American Sign Language at the 2023 International Writing Centers Association Conference. Eden would like to thank her family, production team, crew, and cast for their above-and-beyond work and support of her insane ideas, as well as those who gave her the opportunities to grow as a creative artist. She would also like to thank Jim Canacci for inspiring her and showing her what a great director can do. Finally, Eden thanks the Tweedle Dum to her Tweedle Dee, Isa Foltz, for being the best partner in crime. Thank you all and enjoy your trip into Wonderland!

LILLIAN GERST (Second Alice/Student Director) is a sophomore at Canfield High School and has had a love for theatre and being on stage since she was a young child. Although this is her first time as a student director, she considers The Youngstown Playhouse a second home as she has spent many years there in various productions. She first appeared onstage at the age of 4 in the Akron Children's Hospital American Girl doll fundraiser. By 5, she was a mini rascal with Easy Street Productions in their Miracle on Easy Street Christmas show which she continued to perform in as a rascal until 2019. Her past shows at The Youngstown Playhouse include The Little Prince, Treasure Island, Robin Hood, Frozen Jr., and Gone Away Place. She has also appeared in The Velveteen Rabbit, The Little Mermaid Jr. (CVMS Drama Club), Matilda (Easy Street Productions), Journey To Ohio (Kent State Trumbull), and Freaky Friday (Stage Left Players). Along with her love for theatre, Lillian also enjoys singing and music. She has taken voice and piano lessons with Rick Blackson and participated in her school's choir for over four years. She is currently in her high school's all-female select choir, "One Octave Higher." Along with Alice In Wonderland, Lillian will soon be performing in the Canfield High School choir's annual Dinner Theater fundraiser in the select ensemble. She will also be in Newsies for the Canfield Players this upcoming March in multiple featured roles. In addition to theatre and singing, Lillian is also on her high school soccer team and has been playing the sport for 10 years. Lillian would like to thank her amazing cast mates for being fun and easy to work with, her past directors for teaching her everything she knows, and her current director and stage manager for giving her this opportunity to not only be in this show but to also serve as student director. Lastly, she would like to thank her wonderful family and friends for always supporting her and encouraging her to work hard.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

JIM CANACCI (Lighting Designer) has been involved with lighting design for middle school, high-school, university, and community productions for nearly 35 years, yet this is the first time he's designed lights for a main-stage production at The Youngstown Playhouse. He is no stranger to Youth Theatre productions, and he is so proud to be working with Eden Grace on this production. It is always gratifying to see our own Youth Theatre performers succeed and give back to the community. Jim is an English professor at Kent State University Trumbull and also does work through his production company, Canacci Consulting Ltd. He lives in Youngstown with his wife, Kris Harrington, and is the proud father of two daughters, Gillian and Miranda, who both performed in Youth Theatre productions at TYP.

CAROLYN COLLEY (Costume Designer) is thrilled to get to work behind the scenes costuming for her first time! She recently played Audrey in Little Shop of Horrors here at the Playhouse, and is currently Fraulein Kost in Millennial Theatre Company's production of Cabaret at Hopewell Theater. Since she fell in love with theater as a youth herself, she's so grateful to be a part of creating an inspiring, fun, and safe environment here, for youth to have the opportunity to fall in love with theater.

ISA FOLTZ (Stage Manager) is incredibly excited and honored to be stage managing her first show at The Youngstown Playhouse (TYP)! While this may be her first time stage managing at this venue, she is no stranger to the backstage world. Originally from Sharon, PA, Isa graduated from Sharon High School in 2016, having been a part of their stage crew for two years. In 2020, Isa graduated with a BA in Theater Technology and Design from Gannon University (GU), with a focus on Stage Management. Past productions include White Snake, Heathers, A Medieval Christmas Banquet, One Man, Two Guvnors, Almost, Maine (Stage Manager, GU), and The Wolves (Assistant Director, GU). Isa also spent a semester studying abroad in Limerick, Ireland at Mary Immaculate College (MIC) in the Contemporary & Applied Theater Arts program. While there, she participated in shows both within and outside the college. Past productions include Lovers (Stage Manager, MIC), A Chorus Line (Crew, MIC), and Bread Not Profits (Crew, Gúna Nua Theatre Company). Isa currently works as production staff at Stambaugh Auditorium and the Deyor Performing Arts Center and backstage at our very own YP, both crewing and serving as a scenic artist/set carpenter for many Main Stage and Moyer Room shows. Some past productions she has served on include Spongebob, the Musical (crew, Millennial Theater Company at TYP), Excalibur High, Newsies, Jr., The 39 Steps, Misery (crew, TYP), and Little Shop of Horrors (Scenic Designer, Audrey 2 puppeteer, TYP). Isa would like to thank this amazing cast and crew for their hard work and dedication, Johnny Pecano, Leslie Brown, and Schultzie for their constant and unwavering support, and above all, her fearless leader Eden Lesnansky, the best partner in crime anyone could ask for. Break a leg, everyone!
